SIR SPEEDY APPOINTS NEW PRESIDENT

MISSION VIEJO, Calif., May 3, 2006— Sir Speedy, Inc. announces the appointment of Richard Lowe to president. Lowe was previously senior vice president of franchise operations. Lowe replaces Dan Beck, a ten-year veteran of the position who has been appointed president and chief operating officer of Imaging Solutions, Inc., a new start-up company owned by Franchise Services, Inc., the parent company of Sir Speedy.

“I am very proud of the dedication Richard has shown to the Sir Speedy network since he first joined the company seventeen years ago. His experience in all FSI brands and his immense knowledge of the printing and graphics communications industries will prove to be an asset to our franchisees,” stated Don Lowe, CEO of Sir Speedy, Inc. and Franchise Services. “Under his leadership, I am confident in the continued growth of our network.”

Lowe’s industry career began in 1986 as a copy products sales representative for Eastman Kodak. He joined Sir Speedy, Inc. in 1989 as director of the Copies Now brand. He was later appointed vice president of franchise services and also served as president of Digital Quickcolor, a research and development facility owned by FSI. In 2004, Lowe was promoted to senior vice president of FSI’s print management group.

Sir Speedy, Inc. is the world’s largest and most successful franchisor of printing, copying and document management centers. The Sir Speedy Global Digital Network, with its affiliates, spans nearly 1,000 centers in 26 countries. Sir Speedy has received numerous awards and recognition including the Franchise Times Top 200, Entrepreneur's Franchise 500, Quick Printing Top 100 and the International Franchise Association's Franchisee of the Year Award.

Sir Speedy is owned by Franchise Services, Inc., a management company headquartered in Mission Viejo, California specializing in franchises that meet the needs of the small- to medium-size business market.
