OWNERS OF THE WATERBURY SIR SPEEDY PRINTING CENTER WIN “FRANCHISEE OF THE YEAR” AWARD

WATERBURY, Conn., August 3, 2005— Sir Speedy, Inc. has named Don and Deborah Boesch, owners of the Sir Speedy center in Waterbury, “Franchisee of the Year”. This is the franchisor’s most prestigious award and was presented during the Sir Speedy 28th International Convention held in Tampa, Florida, July 13-17. Don and Debbie were honored for their leadership among nearly 500 Sir Speedy centers worldwide for sales performance and customer service. Sir Speedy, Waterbury also received a “Top 25” award.

“This distinguished award recognizes the very best qualities among our franchisees both professionally and personally,” said Dan Beck, president, Sir Speedy, Inc. “Don and Debbie have shown leadership within the Sir Speedy network, the quick printing industry and their community since opening their center in 1985. This type of excellence is an inspiration and tribute to Sir Speedy as an organization.”

“Receiving this award is an honor. We love what we do and watching our center grow over the past 20 years has been rewarding,” said Boesch. “Sir Speedy does a great job of providing franchisees with training programs and new technology, which has greatly enhanced our customer service and production capabilities. This, coupled with the abilities of our talented staff has allowed us to service customers at the highest level possible. We thank the Waterbury community for their ongoing support.”
